Would You Like to Take in $140 after Supper?

This is exactly what L. Burnett did while still employed. Here are his own words:

"I worked at my Duraclean business part time until I saw that I could make as much in a week as my job paid for a whole month. One night, after supper, I took in $140. Since going full time, I've had single jobs running $300 and more."

Mr. Burnett and one helper serviced this $140 "after-supper" job. The national price guide provides a Duraclean dealer a gross profit of $6 per hour on EACH serviceman plus $9 per hour on any service he himself renders. Your income is limited only by the number of servicemen you employ.

To own a business is much easier than you think. We show you how . . . step by step. The 24 page fully illustrated booklet we'll mail you (with no obligation) explains how most of your gross profit becomes a clear net profit to you.

Start while Continuing Present Job

We furnish all the equipment...and help finance you

If you've wanted to be YOUR OWN BOSS . . . to become financially independent . . . have a fast growing income . . . and own a Nationally Advertised business, NOW YOU CAN! This business is easy to learn . . . easy to start . . . easy to service . . . and no experience is needed. We show you everything and furnish all equipment.

At the start you can stay on your present job, do servicing evening or weekends, or you can line up jobs for your servicemen to do while your customer list grows . . . then switch to full time. One small job a day brings a good starting income . . . and you operate from your home phone.

If you are reliable, honest, and willing to work to become financially independent, mail the coupon for complete facts.

It's Easier than You Think to Start Your Own Business

When you receive our illustrated booklet, you will see the way we show you step by step how to quickly get customers . . . how to steadily build more customers from their recommendations.

All six services are rendered "on location" in homes, offices, hotels, theatres, churches, clubs, motels and institutions. These superior, safer and convenient methods spread Duraclean dealerships throughout the world.

National Magazine advertising explains the superior merits of your services, builds your customer confidence and brings job leads to you.

You have pre-tested newspaper and yellow-page ads, commercials, and a full mailing program.

Furnishings stores, insurance adjustors and decorators refer jobs to our dealers. The year 'round services are in constant demand. Investigate TODAY . . . before someone else takes your location.

Start Small, Grow Big . . . in this Booming Business

Many men have said to us, "I can't afford to give up my job till I know I have a sure thing . . . a sound business that will provide both security and a better living for my family."

That made sense to us so we worked out such a plan. You can start small and grow big just as we did. A third of a century ago Duraclean was an idea . . . but it caught fire and spread rapidly to a worldwide service. It spread because it was based upon (1) superior processes and (2) proven customer-getting methods. You don't experiment. You use tested, proven methods. You have our backing and "know how."

Our first service, the care of carpets and upholstery, exemplifies these superiorities. It not only cleans; it enlivens the fibers . . . revives dull colors. Pile rises with new life. Furnishings are used again in a few hours. There's no machine scrubbing. No soaking. Duraclean cleans by absorption. Mild aerated foam lightly applied, lifts out dirt, grease and many unsightly spots like magic.

Government figures show $750 million yearly potential just in rug and furniture cleaning. You have five other services . . . fully explained in the free booklet.

A few hundred dollars establishes YOUR OWN business. A day's profit more than takes care of the monthly payments we finance for you.

We furnish electric equipment and enough materials to return your TOTAL investment. It is surprisingly easy to learn this business. You can decide from the information we will send you whether to apply for a dealership. So, with no obligation whatever, mail the coupon TODAY.

Own a Nationally Advertised Business

Your Services Are Endorsed by McCall's Magazine, American Research & Testing Laboratories and by leading Carpet Mills & Furniture Makers

What Dealers Say:

Langdon Lawson: National advertising is tops, creates leads. In September, working alone, jobs totaled $1,476.

Charles Randal: Business keeps growing. Made as much as $120 in one day.

D. Kern: Duraclean's proven-best process and the continuous help from headquarters gave me a big jump on all competition.

George Byers: For University, my total billing was $2,416. Total expenses $814.

Gerald Welbrauch: Three persons called me — saw Duraclean advertised in magazines.

Edward Hoy: A smoke damage insurance claim bill was $186. All work was done by me in exactly 8 hours and 2 minutes.

W. C. Smith: Earned $650 one week. Volume keeps getting bigger.

Service man for dealer C. Weed: Furniture was filthy black. When through, I was amazed how clean.

John E. Frost: First 2 months I grossed $1,000 part-time.

Loren Farris: I'm proud to be independent at 30. I wish I had known about Duraclean earlier.

Earl Davis: Our sales increased $17,660 this year.

Ed. Kramsky: In 2 years, now have two assistants, a nice home and real security for my family.

Resale Service

If, because of illness, moving or for any reason a dealer wants to sell, we maintain a service to locate buyers and to help him sell.

Dealerships resell at up to 10 times the dealer's cost. R.D.K., after 5 months, sold for $2,000 above his cost. L.L., after 30 months, got $7,116 more than he had paid. The value of your dealership and franchise grows monthly.

FREE BOOKLET

tells how to Start Your Own Business

With no obligation, we'll mail you a letter and 24 page booklet explaining this business . . . how and why your income grows . . . how we help finance you.

Then decide if this opportunity fulfills your dream of independence and a much bigger income.

Your location could be taken tomorrow . . . so mail coupon today.

MARVEL BULLPEN BULLETINS!

FACE FRONT! Here's a whole kaboodle of news and gossip straight from your bullpen to you!

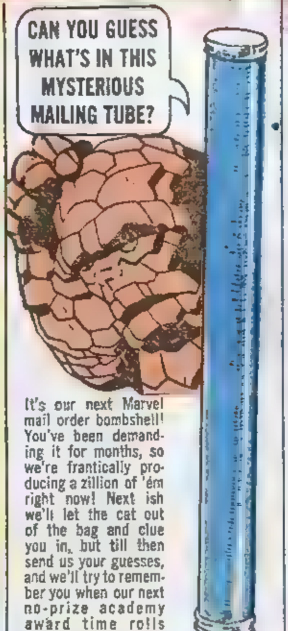
BIG NEWS! An old favorite of yours, Jolly JOE SINNOTT has rejoined our mighty Marvel team! He'll be inking the F.F. regularly, working on "Agent of Shield," and doing as many other features as we can straddle him with! (Remember his great inking job on F.F. #5? Dyed-in-the-wool Marvelites are still drooling over it!)

Everybody's favorite guessing game these days is trying to figure out the real identity of the "Sub-Mariner's" powerful penciller, ADAM AUSTIN! As most of you have guessed, Adam Austin is only a nom de plume, and one of these days we'll reveal his real name to you—if we don't forget it before then!

Did you know that our bullpen ramrod, Smilin' STAN LEE, also authors MONSTERS UNLIMITED as well as YOU DON'T SAY! Both are slick paper photo-gag magazines, and Stan the Man seems to have the magic touch—both of those humor sensations seem to sell out as fast as our own Marvel masterpieces—and that's sayin' something!

Everybody's been clamoring for a sample of JACK (King) KIRBY'S inking as well as his penciling. So, if you'll remind us next spring, we'll try to get him to pencil and ink a special pin-up page for one of next year's Annuals! Of course, it'll mean our buying him a brush, but no sacrifice is too great to make for you Marvel madmen!

How do you like the layout of this page gang? Pretty jazzy eh? Any comments, suggestions or (ulp) criticisms? Grab a sheet of your swingin' stationery and let us know! We're waiting to hear from you!



It's our next Marvel mail order bombshell! You've been demanding it for months, so we're frantically producing a zillion of 'em right now! Next ish we'll let the cat out of the bag and clue you in, but till then send us your guesses, and we'll try to remember you when our next no-prize academy award time rolls around! 'Nuff said!

THE MIGHTY MARVEL CHECKLIST

A Line-Up Of Some Of The Marvel-ous Mags On Sale Right Now!

SPIDER-MAN #31: Under the sea, the Master Planner plots against Spidey! Also, Peter gets a rough introduction to his new college "friends"!

AVENGERS #22: What happens to a world-famous fighting team after they've suffered their first major defeat? This one is a real shocker

X-MEN #14: See the human race up in arms against the X-Men, as the super-natural "Sentinels" make their first fantastic appearance!

DAREDEVIL #10: A real collector's item! On a dare, Stan let Wally Wood write this one, and it's the most off-beat mystery in years! Wait'll you see the far-out super-villains and the panicky plot twists! Sure to be talked-about everywhere!

THOR #122: Having battled Thor to a standstill the Absorbing Man now dares to attack Odin himself! Also, learn the secret of the hooded mystery man!

STRANGE #139: Fury a prisoner of Hydra! Earth menaced by a betatron bomb! And then—a girl steps in! Plus: Dr. Strange's startling battle with Baron Mordo!

SUSPENSE #72: The most unexpected villain of all poses a daringly different threat to Iron Man, while Captain America faces the macabre menace of "The Sleeper"!

ASTONISH #74: The surprise of the season! Why does Namor give up his quest? And, wait'll you see what happens to the Leader when the Hulk returns to earth!

SGT. FURY #24: This is the one you've been waiting for! The Howlers fly to the U.S.A. for a furlough—but they get a lot more than they bargained for! Sensational!

Dear Stan and Jack,

I hate to say this, Stan, but you have sadly underestimated the power of the evil F.F.'s leader. The Wizard's anti-gravity power could be used to create a more powerful force field than Sue Storm's, or it could be used to create illusions. Since all objects possess a naturally attractive gravitational force, the Wizard could create around himself an anti-gravity shield which would repel all objects within certain distance like Unus's power in the X-MEN. It would be stronger than Sue Storm's because her force field is invisible and thus allows light to pass in or out. Sue could be harmed by a laser or some other electro-magnetic radiation weapon. Since light, due to wave-particle duality, is affected by gravity, the Wizard's anti-gravity shield, if operating at highest power, could prevent any light from entering or leaving. If the Wizard operated his shield at a lower power, light leaving from inside the shield would be bent and the image of the Wizard would appear in a different spot than where he actually was. The one disadvantage to this would be that light coming in to the shield would also be bent, and the Wizard would see everything on the outside of the shield where it wasn't. Thus the Wizard could only use this illusion creation as a defensive maneuver. Give the Wizard these powers in addition to his power of levitation and the Frightful Four will be even more worthy foes of the Fantastic Four.

Ray Russo, 930 S. Telemachus
New Orleans, La. 70125

Ray, just tell us one thing—are you related to Dr. Doom, by any chance?

Dear Stan and Jack,

Each issue of F.F. has been getting better and better, but when I saw #39 I didn't know what to do! Not only did the fabulous F.F. get defeated but at the end of the story they lost their fantastic powers. Then came #40 which even topped #39 because not only did we see the F.F. in action without their powers, but also with the blind adventurer known as Daredevil. And as if that wasn't enough to pack into one single issue you had the return of the F.F.'s most powerful villain, Doctor Doom. At the end of F.F. #40 you left us with an uncompleted story, which was obviously a way for Marvel to pocket another 12¢ when the next issue of F.F. came out, but you didn't disappoint us with a bad story that would be nothing but a conclusion to the last issue as is many times done, but instead you gave us the best, and I do mean the best, story Marvel has ever come out with. #41 needs no explanation, because those of us who read it obviously saw what was happening. I mean that you were about to do something with the Thing. The Thing being the favorite character of most of us, is the one that we like to read about, and as usual, Marvel gave us what we wanted. I have never read 6 pages before out of any book that I enjoyed more than the last 6 pages of F.F. #41. And I don't think that Jack Kirby will ever draw another page like that of page 14 in F.F. #41, and I can also say that it has been a long time since I have read such a startling last page of a story such as the last page of F.F. #41. I wrote to thank you, Stan and Jack, for the last three issues of F.F. and especially #41.

Glenn Phillips, 321 Lake Forrest Lane
Atlanta, Ga.

It's funny the things a guy'll think about at times. Despite all the cogent comments in your letter, Glenn, the one point that really gripped Stan was—how the dickens do you manage to write such lonnnnng sentences?

Dear Stan and Jack,

Less advertising please! Out of a grand total of 36 pages comprising F.F. #42, only 21 pages (or a measly 58⅓%) are devoted to the Fantastic Four while 13 pages (36.1%) go to advertising (not counting the announcements of other Marvel productions so subtly interspersed amongst the letter pages). Now, I don't begrudge you a couple pages of pictures of other current Marvel issues They at least represent the Marvel brand of Pop Art—but must the THOR Annual be pictured twice? And must we put up with this other stuff which is beneath your dignity? Is this a result of being located on Madison Ave?! Please reassure me that Marvel is not going the way of crass materialism! And that Stan is not wearing down, forcing him to cut his stories short. More bread! Less taxes!

William F. Steel, (Alumnus, F.F. Fan Club, Zeta Psi, Williams College), 77 Trowbridge St.,
Cambridge, Mass. 02138

Our repeat of the THOR ANNUAL cover twice in one ish was a typical bonehead bullpen mistake, Bill, and not part of an insidious Marvel plot to waste space—honest! We'll promise you this, ol' buddy—we'll never have more ads than we now have—so, if things won't get any worse, they can only change in the other direction, right? (Anyway, there are never fewer than 20 pages of Marvel magic in each ish—which comes to less than a penny a page! And, if you figure how cheaply you're buying our blood, sweat, and tears by the word, you oughtta be ashamed of yourself!)

Dear Stan and Jack,

While studying my collection of FANTASTIC FOUR comics, I ran across the issue in which the infamous Diablo was introduced. As you remember, when his nefarious plans for world conquest were discovered, the UN declared him an outlaw and evidently, decided to take action against him, for we have Reed Richards exclaiming, "The UN must wait until all the votes are in, and then submit their plans for action to special committees!" With further reading it becomes clear that Diablo was defeated only because the Four were able to move immediately; the UN never did make it into the picture as so often happens in real life. Now I wonder, in light of the President's recent actions in Santo Domingo, is Reed on his advisory committee? It looks like another overwhelming "first" for the mighty Marvel Group. I guess your worldwide network of S.H.I.E.L.D. keeps you pretty well informed on what's happening—congratulations, guys!

Jeffrey A. Friedberg, 534 Larchwood Avenue
Upper Darby, Pa.

As a matter of fact, Jeff, we like to think that no one in Washington makes a high-level decision without first consulting the F.F. (Although, for some reason that escapes us, the State Department seems very reluctant to admit it!)

—We've gotta tell you this! Our T-shirts and Marvel Stationery are such smashing successes, that we're wildly working on a whole bunch of new and different items for you! Start saving your sheckels, because we'll soon be offering a brand-new gizmo which is sure to sweep the nation! (No, it's not a broom!) And wait'll you see the other games, gags, and goodies in the works! So keep your M.M.M.S. button shiny and bright, and face front! We're gonna have a ball!

Dear Stan and Jack,

I am just one of the many Queens College students who avidly follow the adventures of the FANTASTIC FOUR. I just finished #42 and I must say that it's obvious that the Fantastic Four have lost a fair fight! They have been outsmarted and they deserved to lose! They have lost a lot of their spirit of mind as well as of body as seen by the fact that they have gotten really soft. The Frightful Four should, it seems to me and others, be the victors. Hence, I would like to see their inevitable victory in the next issue and the magazine should be called the FRIGHTFUL FOUR from now on. The Frightful Four are thoroughly and efficiently evil—the Fantastic Four are wishy-washy!! Thanks, and otherwise, keep up the great work!

Gloria Friedman, 156-11 Aquilar Ave.
Flushing, N. Y. 11367

Some great work, Glo! According to you, we have wishy-washy characters who deserve to lose and to be booted out of their own mag! What kind of letter would you send us if you thought we weren't doing great work?

Dear Stan and Jack,

Well, it's about time. I was getting tired of the way you were downgrading the Thing. It was getting so one would think he's the least important member in the F.F. He's my favorite and always will be, no matter what you do to him. In F.F. #41 you showed him with the Frightful Four. True, they are villains but they gave him the respect he deserved. You know, I remember a time when the Thing was considered as strong as the Hulk except for the Hulk's leg power. Now look at him—the way you have him now the Hulk could tear the Thing to pieces without trying. This is a sickening "thing" to happen to a great guy like the Thing and I'm mad!

Loren Mosier, 2224 Guthrie
Royal Oaks, Mich.

Apparently, we're more successful at getting people mad than at pleasing them! Y'know the way we call SGT. FURY "The War Mag For People Who Hate War Mags"? Well, maybe we oughta call the F.F. "The Mag For People Who Wanna Get Mad!" It seems we can't make a move without angering someone! Boy, imagine if we worked for the U.N.! Instant War!

Dear Stan and Jack,

This M.M.M.S. member has sat back for years and watched the orchids and onions thrown at you in your interesting and provocative letters pages without once being prodded quite enough to add to your eyestrain by firing off a bit of correspondence. Now I must. I want to publicly thank you for providing to my college friends and me a few hours of thoroughly satisfying entertainment each month, and further, to commend you for the immeasurable contribution you have made by helping to mold the values of generations of Americans through the use of tasteful, wholesome themes present in every one of your comics. Without exaggerating or being academic, I'm sure those of us who have read your magazines for some time, and probably even the new readers, can see an unswerving theme emerge—a theme powerful in its very simplicity—the hopefully eternal triumph of good over evil. (Besides, all of our heroes' escapades are just plain fun.) Now, on the lighter side, but still in relation to your "good vs. evil" theme, I would like to reply to Dan Clark's letter in F.F. #41. He told you to take all references to "evil commies" out of your mags, saying that you are "promoting hate." For what it's worth, I'm a Political Science major and I can say that this goes far beyond simple politics. Most would agree that the use of communist villains is certainly not unfair, unrealistic or a promotion of hate. It is the reflection of our contemporary struggle of good vs. evil. We are not lily-white but the Communists definitely do not have the welfare of the world in mind. Marvel's excellent portrayals of the evil menace do not warrant name-calling. Your mags are great—keep 'em coming. Keep up the good work. More than 'nuff said!

Darryl Skytta, Box 181
Michigamme, Mich.

We hope you won't think we're prejudiced, Darryl, but gosh, you sure have good taste!

Dear Stan and Jack,

I just finished reading the letters page of F.F. #41 and found a letter which warmed my heart. The one I mean was the one protesting your use of politics. I agree. I have always thought that this aspect of your books was bad, although they're tops in all other fields. It's certainly not helping the world situation any to insult the policies of other countries. If, as you say, "someone's gotta be the villain," why not make it something even worse than the Communists, such as the Ku Klux Klan or the politicians of South Africa? All I ask is that you take a moment to think about this. You're great, guys, and I'm sure you'll do what's right.

Carola Burroughs, 2721 Barker Ave.
Bronx 67, N. Y.

We try to, Carola honey, honest! Perhaps our use of red villains isn't helping the world situation, but we don't really feel it's hurting it, either! There are a few other factors that seem to have more import on foreign affairs than our stories do — factors like economics, power politics, military logistics, etc. As for the KKK, and any or all organizations that preach intolerance and bigotry, we don't have to tell you how opposed to them we are! But, it's kinda tough to say "These bad guys are worse than these bad guys," so we just take 'em as we see 'em! Okay?

Dear Stan and Jack,

By the time this letter reaches you, it'll be too late to stop Reed and Sue's wedding but I've got to write this anyway. I agree with the fan who said that Reed and Sue shouldn't marry. But I don't agree with his reason that Sue is too good for Reed. I think that Reed is too good for Sue! Why? Mainly because Susan Storm gives the impression of being a self-centered snob. When you say she's in love, I've just got to differ with you. She's in love, all right, but not with Reed. Sue Storm is in love with Sue Storm and nobody else! Another reason is that Reed needs love and understanding. How can Sue give this if she's such a snob? Have you ever noticed how she treats her own brother? She treats Johnny like dirt. It's always "my impetuous kid brother", "little brother", "baby brother", "Johnny this" and "Johnny that." If that's how Sue treats her brother, how do you think she'll treat Reed? All you have to do is tell Sue how beautiful she is and—bang!—you're engaged! Look, fellas, I wouldn't care if you had Reed marry Ben's Aunt Petunia. In fact, I'd prefer Aunt Petunia over Sue Storm. She's all right for a partner, but as Reed's wife, never! The other boy and I may be the only two opposing the match but we still oppose it. So, till Sue comes looking for me with a baseball bat, I remain a great fan of yours. Love ya all! (except Sue!)

Joseph Trainor, 9 Foley St.
Attleboro, Mass.

Never mind about Sue looking for you with a bat, Joey—you know how angry Reed can get—and that's his missus you're talking about! We'll try to keep Stretcho from seeing your letter, but cheee! Be a little more careful next time, huh?

— Prediction time! We predict, here and now, that the Inhumans, whom you've just met, will prove to be one of our greatest sensations—as well as becoming one of our most-imitated group of villains! We can't wait till you learn all about their backgrounds, and the full extent of their uncanny powers! Jack Kirby gets the biggest kick out of them—he claims they remind him of the Munsters and the Addams Family, all rolled into one! Anyway, be prepared for all sorts of dazzling surprises next ish, and stop lending your Marvel T-shirts to Irving Forbush! We pay him so much for shouting "Make Mine Marvel" all over town that he can afford his own! Face front!

Albert Dorne — probably the greatest money-maker in the history of commercial art. At the height of his career, he began a full-time search for people who like to draw.

He's Looking for People Who Like to Draw

TODAY HUNDREDS of men and women who never thought they could be artists are working happily at easels and drawing boards, making pictures and getting well paid for it. They all can thank Albert Dorne, a famous artist who devotes almost his full time to helping other people become artists.

Some of the People Dorne Has Helped

Herb Smith was a payroll clerk. Soon after he started studying with us, he landed an art job with a large printing firm. This was four years ago; today he's head artist for the same firm.

Don Golemba of Detroit is another. He stepped up from railroad worker to the styling department of a big automobile company—by showing his work with the School. Now he helps design new-car models.

Pat Browning wanted to escape from her dull typing job to something creative. Soon after studying with us, she was promoted to full-time artist with the same firm—at much more money.

With the right training, Wanda Pickulski gave up her typing job to become fashion artist for a local department store.

Eric Ericson worked in a garage while he studied art at night. Today he is a successful artist, earns seven times as much, and is building a new home for his family.

Long before Albert Dorne started looking for people who like to draw, they came to him for advice and help. Since he alone could help only a few of these people, he called together America's most successful artists—men like Norman Rockwell, Jon Whitcomb, Stevan Dohanos and Al Parker.

A Plan to Help Others

He said: "All over America, there are people who like to draw, who could be turned into good artists. Why can't we give these people the training they need—including all the trade secrets and know-how we've learned over the years? I'm suggesting a new kind of school—a home-study art school that would give talented people the best professional art training, no matter where they live."

The famous artists agreed. Taking time from their busy careers, they spent several years creating a remarkable series of art lessons covering every aspect of drawing and painting. They illustrated their lessons with over 5,000 "here's-how" illustrations. The lessons start from scratch and cover every skill a top artist needs. Finally, the famous artists developed a wonderful way to give each student personal correction and advice all through his training.

Albert Dorne is not surprised by the success of his students: "The art field is growing. We keep getting calls from all over the country, asking us for practical, well-trained students who can step into full-time or part-time art jobs."

America's 12 Most Famous Artists

Norman Rockwell	Fred Ludekens
Jon Whitcomb	Ben Stahl
Al Parker	Robert Fawcett
Stevan Dohanos	Austin Briggs
George Giusti	Harold Von Schmidt
Peter Helck	Albert Dorne

Famous Artists Talent Test

To find others with art talent worth developing, the Famous Artists created a 12-page talent test. Thousands paid to take this test, but now the School offers it free and grades it free. Men and women who do well on the test—or can offer other evidence of art talent—may enroll in the School. But there's no obligation. Simply mail the coupon below.
